1. Greenleas Recreation Ground
2. Vale Park
3. Braypool
4. Happy Valley

Description

Brighton & Hove City Council (BHCC) has identified four potential trader opportunities (e.g. food and beverage) in park locations, namely:

Greenleas Recreation Ground

Greenleas Recreation Ground is a moderately sized local park, situated towards the west of the city in Hangleton. The area features sports facilities and a playground.

Opportunity: Car park

Vale Park

This is a small local park located in Portslade offering a variety of amenities including playing fields, tennis courts, and a playground.

Braypool

Braypool is situated towards the northern outskirts of the city, opposite the A23-A27 interchange. The RSPCA operate a centre opposite the park and several sports teams make use of the pitches on-site.

Opportunity: Car park

Happy Valley

Happy Valley is a large open green space towards the east of the city in between Woodingdean and Rottingdean. The park features sports pitches and a playground.
