LOCATION

The subjects are located within the town of Airdrie which is positioned approximately 5 miles east of the Town of Coatbridge and approximately 1 mile north of the M8 motorway thereby offering good means of access to the central Scotland motorway network and beyond. The town enjoys good public transport links with a main line railway station located within the town centre.

More specifically the subjects are located on the North side of Graham Street at its junction within Buchanan Street within the main retailing parade within the town centre.

The adjacent plan illustrates the approximate location of the subjects for information purposes only.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise of a three storey retail unit of traditional design. The subjects benefit from an extensive footprint within the town centre occupying a prominent corner location. The subjects benefit from a large double glazed double frontage directly onto Graham Street. Access to the subjects is via a pedestrian double doorway of glazed design.

Internally the subjects have been split to provide sales area at ground floor, with a rear staircase giving access to staff welfare areas, and storage on the first and second floor.

Floors throughout the ground floor are of a concrete design with walls being plastered and painted. Ceilings are of a suspended tile design which further incorporates fluorescent strip light fittings.

The first floor of the unit is mainly open plan storage space incorporating w/c facilities as well as staff welfare facilities. The second floor is a large open plan storage

SALE PRICE

Our clients are inviting offers in the region of £425,000 for their freehold interest in the subjects.
