LOCATION

The subjects are located within the heart of Glasgow's International Financial Services District. More specifically Pacific House occupies a prominent corner location at Wellington and Cadogan Street.

Occupiers within immediate surrounding area include a number of major banks including JP Morgan, Clydesdale Bank and Morgan Stanley. Pacific House also houses a number of professional service firms including Levy & McRae and Ernst & Young.

The building is ideally situated for access to and from the M8 motorway and lies within short walking distance of Glasgow Central and Queen Street Railway Station. The subjects are also well placed to benefit from Glasgow's City Centre amenities.

Car parking is available by way of separate negotiation, with additional car parking located nearby within Cadogan Square Car Park and Q-Park Waterloo Street.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects provide a spacious open plan fourth floor office space within a steel framed building arranged over 7 floors.

The office accommodation is accessed via a spacious ground floor reception foyer which leads to an internal staircase and passenger lift. At fourth floor the suite provides an attractive office space which is ready for immediate occupation.

The office space has been finished to a high standard throughout and benefits from the following specification:

- Raised access flooring
- Flexible open plan floor plates
- Shower facility

- Male, female and disabled toilet
- Metal suspended ceiling
- Comfort cooling
- Ceramic tiled floors and carpet floor covering
- EPC Rating C

The space is currently configured to provide a single open plan office suite. The space however is flexible and smaller floor plates can be provided to suit occupier needs.
